—It is remarkable how tardy the members of the Memphis cotton exchange and chamber of commerce are in attending meetings appointed to consider subjects vital to the commercial interests of the city. The fact was pointed to consider subjects vital to the com-mercial interests of the city. The fact was apparent yesterday in the meeting called to sider the proposed opening of Hatchie river to navigation. The meeting was called for three o'clock, but did not transpire until nearly four. The "rush of business" is a reasonable excuse for ordinary occasions, but one so important as the one in question will admit of no excuse whatever,

-Esquire Spellman yesterday held an in quest on the remains of Mr. Pat Campbell, who died suddenly the night before under suspicious circumstances. —At the beginning of the session of 1879-80, the college of music, of Cincinnati, has added to its already large faculty, in the department of the voice, Signor Luigi Steffenone and Mr. J. F. Rudolphsen; of the piano, Miss Cecilia Gaul; of the violin, Prof. Chris Rothemund; of the organ, theory and chorus classes, Mr. Henry Carter. The faculty of the college now numbers thirty-five teachers, all of whom have been carefully chosen, with all of whom have been carefully chosen, with the view of answering every possible need of musical culture. The methods of instruction are singular to the college, and are deemed of the best. The terms of tuition have been fixed at rates so low that every one desiring a thorough musical education may obtain it in this national training school. The college desires, at the present time, to call attaction to the "orchestra" classes, which are ention to the "orchestra" classes, which are such importance as to merit the earnest onsideration of the general as well as the ner of Madison and Short streets. A coroner's jury was summoned yesterday morning, who repaired to the spot and at once entered into an investigation of all the facts connected with this horrible affair. The evidence OLIVER, FINNIE & CO ed with this norring anar. The evidence showed very clearly that Lucy Brooks, a colored girl, who lived in the immediate vicinity of where the infant was first discovered, was the mother of the child, and after giving birth to it, had concealed the child in the garden, immediately in the rear of the tenement house in which she was living. The evidence, however, fuiled to show that the child was born alive, and the verdict of the jury was in substance, that they believed from all the evidence adduced, that Lucy Brooks was the mother of the dead infant, but that the evidence was not sufficient in warranting them in the belief that the child was born alive. The facts developed in this case only depict another sad case of human depravity.

Buffalo Bill Combination.

Buffalo Bill, the illustrious scout, Indian ghter, guide and actor, supported by a full and efficient dramatic company, will begin a ason of three nights and two matiness at Leubrie's Theater this afternoon. The open-ing piece will be Knight of the Plains, a carefully written melodrama in four acts which abounds in exciting scenes and startling situations, in which Buffalo Bill has played a leading part in actual experience. A band of genuine Indians are appropriate and half a dozen children, were seen wending their way toward the ferry-landing yesday, evidently bent on a journey through | their race, assists materially in producing a realistic effect to the play. New and appro-priate scenery painted expressly for this piece will be used, principal among which are the robbery of the stagecoach and the great prai most realistic and thrilling scene ever used upon the theatrical stage. Not the least at-tractive feature will be the rifle practice by Buffalo Bill, who is the acknowledged supe-

Haverly's Georgia Minstrels. This combination last night closed a most accessful three days engagement, each entertainment, excepting the matine yesterday afternoon, being well attended. The company made many new friends, added to their old coterie, while here this time, proving a teady advancement in their work commend ble to themselves and to their race. Of this we are so sure that we will teach our "Susy" to say: "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhes. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it —nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "soothing syrup for children teething."
